"From time to time, to remind ourselves to relax and be peaceful, we may wish to set aside some time for...a day of mindfulness, when we can walk slowly, smile, drink tea with a friend, enjoy being together" Thich Nhat Hanh

Rev. Joanne M. Murphy

Dear Friends,

“The one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world”
(1 John4:4)

This message is being shared with you on the first day of Lent. What does Lent mean for you? If you came from a traditional religious background, you might have had ashes placed on your forehead. You may have refrained from eating favorite foods, sweets, or participating in your customary pleasurable activities and returned to them on Easter Sunday.

However, in Unity we understand the season of Lent from a deeper perspective. As Charles Fillmore, co-founder of Unity said “Lent is a season of spiritual growth, a time for progressive unfoldment. When we can blend and merge our mind with God-Mind, the way is open for the Lord to glorify us and lift us into a higher, purer, more spiritual state.” You may have the question—“How do I get lifted into a purer, more spiritual state?” Each time you become aware of your thoughts and realize that you are being mesmerized by outer facts and overcome by their seeming power, pray, and, come back to the Truth that your identity is Divine.

Lent is a holy, sacred time—40 days metaphysically is interpreted as “exactly the right amount of time” for you to enter into a new contract with yourself—to prepare your own rising. It is the opportunity to start anew on your spiritual journey—moment by moment to have mastery over thoughts. Your “rising” into spiritual awareness is heightened with prayer, study and meditation. In addition, I suggest creating a new vision with a new spiritual practice. Write a gratitude list, or tithe your time, talent or treasure. Feed your soul by creating an altar, play peace-filled music, light a candle or chant your favorite affirmations. You will no longer want to be pushed by pain but pulled by the vision of your True Identity—the Christ!

HAVE A BLESSED EASTER!

With Love,
Rev. Joanne

NEW CLASS

HOW TO PRAY WITHOUT TALKING TO GOD

By Rev. Linda Martella-Whitsett

Taught by Rev. Joanne

Thursdays, March 22 to April 26, 2012
1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Do you struggle over daily prayer? Are the reasons because you can't dedicate the time, can't sit still, or don't find any benefit from daily prayer?

If you experience these common obstacles to daily prayer practice, i. e. time restraints, restlessness and misguided expectation, join us to learn a step-by-step way to have a more meaningful connection with the Absolute. As Myrtle Fillmore, co-founder of Unity said, "Prayer is the most effective method of renewal and transformation, because in prayer (we) associate with God and not with the problem."

Love Offering

ONGOING CLASSES/GROUPS

- ❖ SILENT UNITY HEALING PRAYER SERVICE - Wednesdays, 12-1 p.m. This is a special time of prayer and silent meditation participated in by thousands around the world, using the Silent Unity Prayer Service. If you are interested in changing your consciousness rapidly and gracefully, please try to attend or make an effort to take time apart at your home or office and join in this dynamic thought process with the multitudes around the globe.

- ❖ HEALING PRAYER CIRCLE - Second Sunday of the month, 12:30-1:30 p.m. Please check the church schedule for any changes.
- ❖ MINDFULNESS BY THE SHORE - Second and fourth

Tuesday evenings of the month at 7:00-9:00 p.m.

"Meditation is to be aware of what is going on: in your body, in your feelings, in your mind, and in the world." - Thich Nhat Hanh. There are various forms of meditation in this tradition, such as sitting, walking, eating and mindful reading and discussing. As a practice of awareness in sitting meditation, one stops, is still, calming the mind and body. From a quiet, still place one can gain insight into a deeper understanding of patterns of thinking and feeling which affect our life. With some practice, this can lead to a growing capacity to be present to oneself and to the world. We are fortunate to meet with a community of friends who support each other toward a greater sense of peace and well-being. We welcome anyone who is interested in joining us. The contact person is Judy Weaver, jsweave9@aol.com.

Message from the President

Sandi Robertson

Upon completion of research conducted by Chuck Pettis from Brand Solutions in 2009, Unity Worldwide Ministries (UWM) launched the Unity Identity Project. Many people have believed that Unity is the “Best Kept Secret.”

How many of us say we wish we found Unity earlier in life. I know I did! UWM wants to get that secret out. They found that each Unity ministry is individual and unique in expression but all are based on the same Five Principles. Therefore, UWM wanted to create cohesion among Unity ministries, UWM home office and Unity World Headquarters at Unity Village.

There is a growing section of the population—people who don’t belong to a specific spiritual community but who identify with Unity’s spiritual beliefs. Surveys were created, both internally within the Unity movement and externally to gather feedback on words, language, color schemes, etc., and the UWM logo was created. Research results can be found at unity.org/branding.

By creating visibility through branding, we can reach those who are seeking a spiritual home. Just as a certain fast food restaurant uses the “Golden Arches” logo to attract those who are physically hungry, our logo, a blue globe, can be sought out by those who are spiritually hungry. Our Board voted and agreed to take part in the Unity Identity Project, which began in October 2011. We will use the branding techniques created for UWM. Under the new UWM logo will appear our name, Unity by the Shore, with the tagline “A Spiritual Community.”

A sign with our new name and logo will be our most visible piece of publicity to attract those seeking to experience the dynamic, loving community that is Unity by the Shore. We anticipate installation will take place around the third week of March. Our website is also being redesigned and updated. I hope you like the new logo, sign and website!

With love,
Sandi Robertson

Patricia Loughney

Unity Provides Safe Haven For Longtime Member

By Flo Higgins

Patricia Loughney is a familiar figure at Unity by the Shore. She calls Unity her second home and treats it like her first by serving and loving everything about Unity.

The tall blonde Patricia has faced many personal challenges including the death of her two day old baby, the heartache of divorce, and her recent bout with cancer.

And through it all it was, according to Patricia, "My deep faith in God and my spiritual life at Unity that brought me through it much wiser and with a deeper faith in God.

"With Unity I was able to handle each challenge in my life with the wisdom offered by the teachings of Unity," Patricia said.

Patricia grew up Catholic, but she said, "I have found my real spiritual faith in Unity and its philosophy."

She was introduced to Unity by her long ago friend, the late Joyce Nelson, who told her of the services and then introduced her to the church, which at that time was located in Asbury Park. That was over a two decades ago when the Rev. Al LaBrec was minister.

Patricia was able to take dozens of classes with Rev. Al and started her church service during his tenure here. She served on the Board of Trustees twice, has been an Usher, is a member of the Prayer Team and is a Sunday morning Greeter.

She was chair of the Hospitality Ministry for six years and is well known in the kitchen and for supervising the Sunday social hour. This is a role she recently left and is now looking to serve in another area of the ministry.

Last Fall she was chair of the Annual Yard Sale. Patricia knows the meaning of service not only at her church but also in her career.

She started her career as a teacher at Keyport High School. For the past 25 years she has worked in Eatontown for the U.S Department of Labor as a Training Counselor. In that role Patricia trains people to either add to their job skills or develop new skills.

Her record of service is awesome and continues as she looks to new areas where her talent can be used here at Unity.

But above all is her sincere love of Unity and its meaning in her life. Patricia is quick to point out, "Unity came into my life at a very stressful time. And my faith in God has taught me that each experience includes a spiritual lesson. Unity has allowed me to learn the lessons of faith, love and compassion. I am so grateful."

Lots of news from Children's Church

Our Children's church is growing thanks to our new volunteers.

They are Charles Boyer, Mary Phillips and Kelly Tomblin. They will be joining James Wilson to create our new Uniteens group, which starts in March!

How awesome that we now have 3 age groups! Unitots which is lead by Patrice DeVincentis. She is so wonderful with the little ones.

Unikids will be lead by Lindy Stork and myself. We look forward to starting our Harry Potter curriculum based on Truth principles and the first four Harry Potter movies. The curriculum is designed to assist the children into tapping into the "magic" that exists within them.

Uniteens will be using, "Bring on the Basics," which is a Uniteens curriculum based on Unity's five Basic Principles.

Children's Choir is making beautiful music together at 10:00 a.m. every Sunday. Thanks Laura Dubois, Geoff Hipschman and Lyell Gressitt. Great job!

We are also looking forward to Palm and Easter Sunday with our annual Easter Egg hunt and Easter Hat parade.

A special thanks goes out to BJ Lennox who taught on Sunday February 19 all about rocks and stones. She tied the lesson on rocks together with the theme of the month for February, which is Love. The children left with their own bag of stones and a stone heart necklace. Each necklace was individual and unique, just like them. We loved it and BJ rocks!

If anyone has a talent or something that really inspires them and would like to share it with the children, please see me. We are so blessed to have such wonderful, talented, loving people co-creating with our Youth! It is because of our volunteers that our Youth program is growing and thriving and we thank you all!

Love and Blessings to all, Sally Kurth
